17th ANNUAL INN GOLF CLASSIC HITS A HOLE IN ONE RAISING OVER $167,000 TO FIGHT HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS

Hempstead, NY (Sept. 24, 2012) – Friends and supporters teed off to fight hunger and homelessness on Long Island raising over $167,000 to help at The INN’s (Interfaith Nutrition Network) Annual Golf Classic.

On Thursday, September 13, 2012 over 130 attendees joined at the North Shore Country Club in Glen Head, to pay tribute to Eric Kramer of Farrell Frtiz, P.C. for his dedication to The INN’s mission.

Eric was presented a silver soup ladle acknowledging his generosity, commitment, and work as an advocate for The INN.

“Eric has been a longtime supporter of the agency displaying his compassion for The INN both professionally and personally,” said Sal Ferro, Event Co-chair. “His devotion to our mission has truly helped spread the word about the issues of hunger and homelessness on Long Island.”

The INN

The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) is a dynamic, not-for-profit, volunteer-based organization working to resolve Long Island's hunger and homelessness issues by providing food, shelter, long-term housing, and supportive services in a dignified and respectful manner to families and individuals seeking assistance. A dedicated staff, committed volunteers, and broad-based community support help The INN to deliver its services through 16 soup kitchens in 22 locations, three homeless shelters, and a Long Term Housing Program consisting of 23 housing units for families and housing for up to seven veterans. As one of Long Island's largest private social service agencies, The INN is ranked among the most cost-effective charities in the United States.
