

DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT, LONG ISLAND NOT FOR PROFIT

Full Time

The Interfaith Nutrition Network, Inc. (The INN) is a 501c3 not for profit organization located in Hempstead, NY which has been addressing hunger and homelessness on Long Island for over 35 years. The INN operates the Mary Brennan INN, Long Island's largest soup kitchen and the Center for Transformative Change, an innovative service center that works directly with individuals challenged by joblessness and homelessness. In addition, The INN operates Emergency Homeless Shelters and a variety of housing programs which help to address Long Island's housing crisis. We are currently involved in program expansion activities aimed at assisting the community to access both employment training and health care services.

We are currently seeking an experienced and highly motivated Director of Development who can work independently to plan, implement and develop a full range of fund raising programs, as well as, creating and expanding public awareness of the organization's mission and vision. You will be responsible for increasing the organization's revenues through management of a comprehensive development program which includes major gifts, direct mail, digital communications, events, social networking, corporate and foundation support, planned giving and donor relations. Must be proficient in managing a team and utilizing a fundraising database. Supports The INN's Development Committee by working directly with our board of directors. Reports to the Executive Director.

Ideal candidate must have a proven track record in development and public relations.

Successful major gifts and donor relations experience including management experience, excellent communication skills, both oral and written, and highly developed interpersonal skills is a must. Bachelor's degree required plus a minimum of five years of proven non-profit fundraising/development experience and a successful track record of securing donations.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package. If you have the passion and skills to succeed in this highly visible position, please send resume and salary requirements to HumanResourcesdev@the-inn.org or mail to:

Human Resources, The INN, 211 Fulton Ave. Hempstead, NY 11550/Fax 516-486-8105
EOE m/f/d/v